

Pensions Authority Seminar

Wednesday 27 January 2016 at 9.00am
(Registration from 8.00am)

The Marker Hotel, Grand Canal Dock, Dublin 2

The Pensions Authority is holding a seminar on its plans for 2016 and beyond. This seminar will be relevant to trustees, registered administrators, providers, advisors and all operating within the pensions sector.

The seminar will set out the Authority's strategy for 2016-2020. It will include an update on the work of the Authority on pensions reform and simplification.

The Authority will also launch the first tranche of its Codes of Governance for Defined Contribution Schemes.

Seminar Programme

9.00am The Pensions Authority's agenda

Brendan Kennedy, Pensions Regulator

Brendan will set out the objectives of the Authority for the next five years and the plans for 2016.

9.30am Reform and simplification of the pensions landscape

Mary Hutch, Head of Policy, The Pensions Authority

Mary will provide an overview and update on proposals to DC reform including proposals to simplify the pensions landscape.

9.45am The Pensions Authority's governance agenda

Grace Guy, Head of Legal, The Pensions Authority

Grace will focus on the Authority's position in relation to pension scheme governance and will introduce the first tranche of the Authority's Codes of Governance for Defined Contribution Schemes (DC codes).

10.15am Questions and answers

10.45am Seminar ends

CPD Accreditation:

This event has been CPD accredited for 1.5 hours

Reserve your place:

To reserve your place at the seminar please complete the booking form available on the Authority's website and e-mail it to ecarroll@pensionsauthority.ie by C.O.B. Monday 25 January 2016. For multiple bookings please provide separate details in respect of each individual for whom a place is being booked.